Coach Slowinski has released a new bi-monthly newsletter with the first installment ready for reading. The newsletter will be published six times annually and will continue his unique approach to bowling. With a newsletter, Slowinski wants to enhance content by adding support material to a centralized topic. This additional content will include items such as practice plans or evaluation material as well as other important material. Sometimes this will take the shape of a lengthy article while on other occasions the newsletter will have a topic driven focus with multiple shorter pieces centralized around the topic. The newsletter promises to help both coaches and players with fresh thought-provoking material. Click here to SUBSCRIBE TO THE NEWSLETTER
