

Gold In Masters & Silver in Doubles @ the South American Games

Contributed by Joe Slowinski
 Sunday, 16 March 2014
 Last Updated Sunday, 16 March 2014

Coach Slowinski was with Team Brazil at the South American Games in Santiago Chile in March. He helped Marcelo Suartz win Gold in the Masters (3rd qualifier after 24 games) and Silver in Doubles (Marcelo Suartz and Renan Zoghaib). Marcelo shot 2202 in 9 games (244.6 average) on the dual pattern setting with Tokyo on the left and Los Angeles on the right. Matches were 3-game sets. He doubled in game 3 after Jaime Gonzales had finished to seal a trip to the finals.

Quarter Finals MARCELO SUARTZ IVAN VALLEJO (Ecuador) 245 244 226 221 204 209 715
 238.3 634 211.33

Semi Finals MARCELO SUARTZ JAIME GONZALEZ (Columbia) 276 246 247 257 246 258 769
 256.3 761 253.7

Finals MARCELO SUARTZ ILDEMARO RUIZ (Venezuela) 231 255 240 187 233 200 726 242
 620 206.7

DOUBLES RESULTS (12 Games)

Ildemaro Ruíz 231.67 ORO

Amleto Monacelli 243.75

Venezuela 237.71

Renan Zoghaib 214.5 PLATA

Marcelo Suartz 233

Brasil 223.75

Jaime Gonzalez 210.58 BRONCE

Manuel Otálora 210.33

Colombia 210.46